

Spring Break Drama Academy

TheatreSquared, Northwest Arkansas' professional theatre company, is back with another installment of our immensely popular Drama Academy! Students will learn the tricks of the trade on how to become a good actor in this "total immersion" experience led by professional theatre artists. Whether your child is new to acting or is a veteran of TheatreSquared's drama classes, this class is perfect for them! Students will learn about character development and how to make characters come to life through exercises and script work. Students will also study improvisation, learning the importance of ensemble and how to establish good acting technique with scene partners. During this one-week course, students will practice techniques that will help them "stand out" as a performer, while also enhancing their life skills of self-confidence, discipline, integrity, commitment and teamwork. Limited Space is Available.
